

in the Old Vicarage at Windsor which Queen Mary placed at the disposal of the princess.

Crown Point, Ind.—Steve Jurcha's first auto joy-ride was en route to electric chair. Deputy sheriff drove him to Michigan City, where he will be electrocuted for murder.

Berlin.—De. Huegel, Munster, announces that radium and mesathorium is cure for deafness.

Rome.—Duke of Abruzzi, who introduced tango at recent dinner party, now accused of "corrupting Italian society."

Naples.—34 youths and maidens had to postpone marriage because municipal employes joined general strike.

Portland, Ore.—Steamship Spokane sank off Cape Lazo, B. C. All passengers rescued.

St. Paul.—Union depot destroyed by fire. $250,000 loss.

Hammond, Ind.—Four railroad officials and an automobilist were hurt in collision at grade crossing between gasoline speeder and an auto.

Venice.—Plot against life of Lord Kitchener, British ruler of Egypt, disclosed by arrest of 18 Mussulman fanatics.

Plymouth.—Harry Kemp, poet who eloped with former wife of Upton Sinclair, will be handed over to police as stowaway on Oceanic.

Hazelhurst, Miss.—Wilson Evans, negro, lynched for assaulting Cora Little, 18. Girl was chloroformed, gagged and carried five miles into woods. Dying.

Salem, Mass.—Eleanora Sears, society belle, fined $25 for operating Harold Vanderbilt's auto without Massachusetts license. Not arrested.

Washington.—Atty-Gen. McReynolds relieved from duty U. S. Judge Morane, Alaska, and U. S. District Atty. Roddy. No charges filed.

New York.—Despite permission to enter U. S. under bond, Miss Marie Lloyd, music hall singer, and Bernard Dillon, jockey, held at Ellis Island because they were sailing as man and wife though never married, declined to enter country. Miss Lloyd says she will never sing here again.

Washington.—After passing tariff bill, House unsuccessfully tried to take a month's rest. Leader Underwood said Senate would not consent.

New Orleans, La.—Sugar planters of Louisiana organized $7,000,000 concern to control state's output of molasses with view to fight sugar trust.

Washington.—Pres. Wilson will be asked to talk over telephone to 900 banqueters of Advertising Affiliation convention Oct. 1.

Kankakee, Ill.—John Mahan, former attendant at State Hospital for Insane, bound over to grand jury as accessory to murder of Carl G. Holst, 78, inmate who died as result of alleged beating.

St. Paul, Minn.—Workmen employed on dredge at White Bear Lake discovered placer mine paying $200 per day in rich ore.

Springfield, Ill.—John Molin, 18, suffocated to death in dust bin of Springfield Paving Brick Co. Attempted to save his hat and fell in.

Jerseyville, Ill.—Myrtle Hamilton told mother two men had cut off her hair. Bloodhounds found braids under Myrtle's front porch. Confessed she cut them off herself.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Beulah Barton, 22, arrested in company with Albert Hoover, St. Paul, said to have wife and child.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Peter Nelson, 74, "Man of Mystery," found dead on streets. Wealthy but worked as common laborer. Scores of letters found in his room from President Wilson, senators, general postmaster and cabinet members of last two administrations.

Richmond, Ind.—Aviator Castari, Chicago, slightly injured in 50-foot fall with biplane.

Bartlesville, Okla.—Mrs. Laura M. Reuter found guilty of murder of husband, a Tulsa, Okla., attorney. Sentenced to life imprisonment.